The User/Organization representative is responsible to be on the premises during meetings; when the representative cannot attend the meeting, he/she must designate an alternate representative for that meeting and notify the Program Coordinator in writing. If an alternate representative cannot be found, the meeting will be cancelled.

The User/Organization is responsible for publicity. The Library reserves the right to promote this program through its press releases, internal postings, website and online distributions.

The User is expected to read and abide by the Library’s Use of Library Facilities policy. There can be no charge for admission except when the proceeds will be used to benefit the Library (e.g., functions sponsored by The Friends of the Mount Pleasant Public Library), or with Board approval to defray expenses of the program. This must be stated in publicity releases, posters, fliers, etc.

Insurance cannot be undertaken by the Library. This should be arranged individually by each User. The Library, the Village of Pleasantville and the Town of Mount Pleasant will not be held responsible whatsoever for loss or damage. The User is required to sign this release form, absolving the Library from any responsibility.

The Mount Pleasant Public Library hereby grants to User the right to use the Library for the purpose and for the period specified above. In consideration of the right which is hereby granted to User, User warrants and agrees as follows:

1. At the discretion of the Program Coordinator, the User has the right to publicly display or perform any artistic material used by the User and shall save the Library, the Village of Pleasantville and the Town of Mount Pleasant harmless against any claim from anyone that the display or performance of said material violates the rights or interests of anyone.
2. The User shall indemnify, hold harmless and defend Mount Pleasant Public Library, the Village of Pleasantville and the Town of Mount Pleasant for any and all claims however incurred arising directly or indirectly from User’s use of the premises including but not limited to claims arising from contract, negligence and other tortious acts or omissions.
3. The Library shall not be responsible for cleanup: therefore it is the responsibility of the User to do all kitchen clean up and to leave any and all areas used in the condition in which they were found.
4. The User must comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act and is responsible for providing qualified interpreters or auxiliary aids upon request.
