Old Business

Library Board President Kent Anker provided an update on the status of the Master Plan construction project. Priorities for this project include: ACM abatement, adult meeting rooms, programming and community spaces, children's rooms (with soundproof considerations), and elevator to mezzanine (ADA compliance). The library continues discussions with the Town and Village regarding budget considerations for this project. The library plans to begin applying funds from a $700,000 grant from Assemblymember Shimsky's office toward Master Plan costs in 2026.

The Master Plan project will move forward in the following ways:

1. Library Board and Director will investigate options for continuing Library services throughout construction;
2. establish a working group with Town and Village representatives to advise throughout the project;
3. request revised drawing plans from architect HMA2 with the intention of breaking ground in 2026;
3. Set up a meeting with Village and Town representatives before January to discuss respective financial commitments for upcoming years;
4. begin thinking about public engagement strategies to incorporate community input (especially Pleasantville and Mount Pleasant schools that actively engage with library services)

New Business

Library Director McCarthy received an email from an artist requesting to serve wine at an upcoming art show to be hosted in the library. The Board of Trustees unanimously voted to deny this request as a resolution. The Board will revisit the library's official policy on serving alcoholic beverages as a guideline for future requests.

 Trustee Julie Edwards suggested the Library discuss fundraising options with Friends of the Mount Pleasant Library.

The library's contract with its current lawyer will expire in December 2025. As such, the library is seeking to hire a new lawyer and will actively interview interested parties.
